2. (S/D) Imagery of the Tolafarush Search Area A576 shows major elements of four Iraqi armor battalions and two mechanized infantry battalions deployed as combined arms units, two artillery battalions, and an SA-6 regiment deployed around Khanaqin, Iraq. Some of these units had been advanced to deployed positions immediately adjacent to the Iraq/Iran border between Craters observed in the deployment area indicated recent hostilities.

3. (S/D) On one tank battalion, one mechanized infantry battalion, two tank companies, one mechanized infantry company, two ZSU-23/4 self-propelled antiaircraft gun batteries, and elements of an artillery battalion were deployed in an area 12 nautical miles (nm) south of Khanaqin, at 34-09-40N 045-18-50E. Two tank companies were deployed along a road south of Khanaqin at 34-12-40N 045-20-30E and 34-17-00N 045-20-50E, respectively. Elements of an artillery battalion were deployed south and southeast of Khanaqin at 34-17-10N 045-26-10E, 34-15-00N 045-22-00E, and 34-19-25N 045-22-40E, respectively. One tank battalion was deployed 3 nm southeast of Khanaqin at 34-15-40N 045-27-40E. One tank battalion was deployed 5 nm northwest of Khanaqin at 34-24-00N 045-18-20E. Elements of an artillery battalion were deployed to the north and northeast of Khanaqin at 34-25-00N 045-17-30E and 34-30-10N 045-23-00E, respectively. An SA-6 regiment, consisting of five batteries, was deployed around Khanaqin at 34-15-10N 045-21-30E, 34-17-00N 045-22-20E, 34-19-20N 045-18-30E, 34-19-40N 045-24-50E, and 34-20-20N 045-23-00E, respectively.

4. (S/D) On one combined arms mechanized infantry battalion-minus had been deployed 4 nm west of the Iran/Iraq border along a road at 34-18-10N 045-30-00E. Elements of two combined arms battalions were deployed in four groups, within 2 nm of the Iran/Iraq border, along a north-south axis. One SA-6 battery had been relocated from 1 nm southeast of Khanaqin to a point 1 nm northeast of Khanaqin at 34-21-20N 045-22-20E. One tank battalion was deployed 17 nm north of Khanaqin with an SA-6 battery at 34-38-10N 045-22-30E. By Iraqi units, reported previously as tank and mechanized infantry units, had been deployed as a combined arms mobile defense force and had been moved into forward positions closer to the Iranian border. Artillery batteries had also been deployed forward in direct support of these combined arms units. These combined arms units consist of from one to two tank platoons supporting from one to two mechanized infantry companies (Figure 1). The deployment of the SA-6 regiment and combined arms units held in reserve has remained basically unchanged since
